Re: Mickey Redwine
Claim #1075977

Dear Claims Administrator

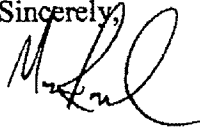

I am in receipt of your "Final Letter of Rejection" dated June 28, 2006. Please consider this as my contest of that determination.

If I inadvertently excluded myself, I would like to revoke that and request to be included in the class.

I sent my "Proof of Claim and Release" in on 3/4/2005. I have no other actions against Worldcom. I have lost a significant amount of money in this debacle and deserve what small measure of relief that I'm entitled to through the Worldcom, Inc Securities Litigation.

Please include me in the Class.

Sincerely,
